

G. R. Taylor Writes to Commissioner Chalmers

Points Out That He Has Been Misinformed

The following letter was mailed to Commissioner Chalmers, Edmonton, a few days ago.

Wetaskiwin, March 18, 1912

J. Chalmers,
Commissioner of Edmonton,
Edmonton, Alberta.

Dear Sir:-

I have read your report as published in our city papers and must say that you have been supplied with very little true information when you made your report.

You state that the gas unit is rated at 127 K. W., but could not operate at more than 110 K. W. I operated this unit from December 1911 to January 1912 and have had 29 per cent. overload on this unit, at times and voltage up to mark. My second engineer has carried the above with no trouble, the old council has seen this and I must make this known. The above engine has been broken and valves set since I left the plant.

You state in your report that current was sold at 16c., are you aware current was sold at 13c. one and a third cents per K. W., to run the 40 H.P. motor and now it has been raised to 18c. per H. P. per year. Are you supplying current in Edmonton as low as that?

You state if $48,000.00 was the cost of the gas plant, etc. Now the estimate for the above was $30,000.00 and this was sold for less than that. We lost $3,000.00 on this; extra foundations were built. We lost through this and other ways.

The figures on your coal are out. You state 29 K. W. must be deducted to operate auxiliaries. I must say you are misinformed, as 29 K. W. on the graphic meter, which operated O. K. January 5, 1912, showed that all house and store lighting as well as these auxiliaries took no more than 29 K. W. after 12 p.m. The motors do not operate to full capacity as you must know.

Mr. Chalmers, I would like to know if you honestly believe what you say when you state that the present engine and steam unit will not synchronize? I wish to say that my firm could operate these when they were synchronized and that they were synchronized on Jan 5th, 1912, and the man that took charge after I resigned, Mr. A. Ray, ran these the night of Jan 5th, and had no trouble. You can find this to be a fact if you call on Mr. F. W. Hobson, Government Boiler Inspector, Edmonton, who has seen them.

You state Wetaskiwin station is heavily overloaded. This is not correct, nor are your figures on the load of the plant. I operated this plant for seven years and know this to be a fact. You know December load must be the heaviest and that January drops off. Mr. J. C. Huffman, your superintendent at Edmonton, can give you his figures and he also can tell you that you have not two units that synchronize better than Wetaskiwin, as he has seen them.

Your figures on the air lift system are not correct. You state our present air compressor takes 40 H.P. to lift 200,000 gallons, hence it is entirely inadequate for needs in the future. Now, Mr. Chalmers as a matter of fact, the compressor is too large for Wetaskiwin and should be run with only one cylinder, as far as capacity is concerned and under test 225 C.F.F.M. should lift 1,463,200 gallons in 24 hours, so you see if we had the water in our wells it could lift enough water in one day to last that is if we were as big as you suggest 2,000 water-takers. As our population at present is only that, we would be looking pretty far ahead.

You have been misinformed on the new boiler, as it is 100 H. P. and not 150.

As regards new pump and compressor you must take into consideration that it costs nothing to operate our present pump as the waterworks own the well that furnishes the natural gas and that there is more than enough to operate this engine, therefore the duplex pump may not operate more than 12 hours in 365 days, thus extra expense is a waste of money.

Have you read the C.P.R. report on our water for boiler use? Where would Wetaskiwin get its water for condensing?

I do not want to take up any more of your valuable time, but expect you may wish to know some of the above facts.

Yours truly,
G. R. TAYLOR,
Ex-Supt. Light & Power

Work on the new post office building is being resumed, and the contractor states that the building will be rushed to completion with all possible speed. With no unforeseen hindrances, the building will be ready for occupancy by July 1st. If an additional storey is added, as is now suggested, it might take a month longer.

The Garbutt Business College deserves the support of the people of this city. This is one of a chain of schools situated at Calgary, Lethbridge and Winnipeg. Students of this branch have the same standard of graduation as any of the other Garbutt schools.

They are the only schools in Alberta affiliated with the business educators' Association of Canada, the association which is largely responsible for the present high standard of business education. This association includes among its members the leading schools throughout the Dominion of Canada. It not only sets the examination papers, but also corrects the students' work and issues their diplomas upon graduation. Anyone obtaining this diploma has the satisfaction of knowing that he or she is just as good as any of the graduates of the colleges in the East.

There are many young people here who have often wished to take up a business education, but have been unable to leave the work in which they were engaged. For them there is now the night school of the Garbutt Business College. Young people should grasp this opportunity to secure a good business education. The Night School opens on Tuesday evening, April 2, at 7.30.

Wetaskiwin's New Chief

Senior Detective James, of the city police force, has been appointed to the position of chief of police of Wetaskiwin, which means that another distinct loss has been sustained by the local police force. This is the fifth resignation within two weeks.

The receiving of the position by Detective James is a distinct honor to merit, for he has been one of the most efficient and the most popular men that ever served on the local force. He entered the service of the city of Saskatoon two and a half years ago with a long list of years in service already behind him when he acted as special agent for the Grand Trunk Pacific and the Canadian Northern, as well as other railways.

He has made some extremely brilliant captures, and he and Detective Reeves, who will now step into James' shoes, were twin terrors to evildoers in the city. Who Detective Reeves' assistant will be is not known, but the next one will probably be one capable of handling the finger print and photo identification departments. -Saskatoon Daily Star.

GARBUTT BUSINESS COLLEGE

The Wetaskiwin Branch of the Garbutt Business College will be opened on Tuesday, April 2. M. Garbutt, proprietor of the Garbutt Business College, was in town for a few days last week and here secured suitable premises in the Merchants Bank building. The Garbutt School is here to stay. As evidence of this fact, it might be mentioned that Mr. Garbutt has taken a year's lease of the above premises.

Mr. W. W. Dossie, M. A., who will be the principal of the Wetaskiwin branch of the Garbutt Business College, will arrive in the city in a few days. He will be accompanied by Mrs. Dossie. Mr. Schmidt, who has been organizing the school here will be present at the opening.

All those who intend taking up the work at the college this term are requested to be in attendance on the opening day, April 2. Night school opens on the same date at 7.30.

AN APOLOGY

We regret an omission in last week's issue relating to the Wetaskiwin amalgamation. The names of Miss Florence Kelley as accompanist, Mr. Claude Hughes as conductor, were not mentioned in the list of officers elected for 1912. We published the list of officers exactly as it was handed to this office and must presume that the writer forgot to mention the names of accompanist, however, we extend our sincere apologies to Miss Kelley and Mr. Hughes for the oversight and can assure them it was not intentional on our part.

The voting on the by-law on Thursday next will be a vote of confidence in the present administration. If you are satisfied with the electric light policy now presented, no doubt, you will be in favor of the council raising $3,000 by debenture to complete the system of waterworks and sewerage and for the purpose of extending and maintaining the electric light and power plant. If you are not convinced that this money is needed, and will be wisely and judiciously expended, you will vote against the raising of the money.

It will be remembered that at a gathering held in the Dreamland Theatre some weeks ago, Mayor Knox stated that a meeting would be held in good time to fully discuss the proposed by-law. It is now only a few days before the ratemakers will be called upon to register their votes and up to the present the council has not even felt it to take the public into its confidence, nor has any announcement been made as to the holding of a meeting. Why has this meeting not been held?

Council Holds Private Session

Representatives of The Press Ordered From The Council Chamber on Two Occasions

The representatives of the press received a jolt on Monday forenoon and Tuesday evening of this week, when they were informed that their presence was not wanted at meetings of the city council. On Monday morning last, The Times was informed in the usual manner that a special meeting of the council would be held at 11.30 that morning. In accordance with this intimation a representative was at the council chamber a few minutes prior to that hour, happy in the anticipation of some choice local news for this issue. But alas! Our pleasant thoughts were quickly jarred, for upon the arrival of His Worship, we were immediately informed in no uncertain sound that the meeting was to be a private one, and that the press would not be allowed to remain.

Then again on Tuesday evening we were told that the city council chamber to attend an "ad hoc" meeting of the one held a week previously. To our amazement we were again informed prior to the opening of the meeting, that this was to be another secret conference and that the presence of the press was decidedly objectionable. Ald. Eids was not some business that might be considered before the council, went into committee of the whole, but His Worship did not know of any. Ald. Eids reminded him of the by-law to appoint the new chief of police, and after receiving permission, gave notice that at next meeting he would introduce a by-law appointing that official. This apparently being the only business to be transacted of what the public should have knowledge, the press made a speedy exit. We were informed on Wednesday morning by an alderman that some business of a regular council session was transacted after our departure.

By this action the greatest suspicion is reflected upon our city fathers, for, in their deliberation of municipal affairs, what have they to hide? As we stated last week, the council is placed in office by the people to look after the interests of the city, to the best of their ability. If they are doing this, why should the press of the city be debarred from giving reports of the meetings? In the reporting of any meeting a reporter is called upon to exercise his discretion as to what should be published and what should not. This faculty is brought into use at every council meeting, and what is not in the best interest of the city is omitted. We contend, therefore, that a reporter is in a better position than any of the council to decide what should be published and what should not. By the holding of these "dark chamber" meetings the council has lost the confidence of the rate payers.

NEWS ITEMS

Regina, Sask.-An instructive comparison has just been compiled showing Regina's growth in population during a ten-year period side by side with Vancouver's growth during a similar period. In 1901 Regina's population was 2,240, increasing by 1911 to 30,210, or a percentage of increase of 1,400. Vancouver's population in 1901 was 27,010, and in 1911 it was 100,333, or a percentage of increase of 270 during the ten-year period. Meanwhile Eastern cities such as Quebec, Halifax and St. John have shown increases of 10, 12 and 5 per cent, respectively. It is believed by close observers that the railway development of this section of the West has much to do with this extraordinary record, and careful estimates forecast another 3,000 increase in Regina's population simply as a consequence of the opening of the new G.T.P. terminals here in 1912. This estimate is based upon observation of similar railway development at Winnipeg, Moose Jaw and other well-known points.

Owing to the difficulties experienced in getting proper recruits for the Northwest Mounted Police and the necessity of maintaining the present standard of the force, it is understood that the government has decided to increase the pay of the men from sixty to seventy-five cents per day, and to reduce the term of service from five to three years. It is believed that these proposed conditions will have a beneficial effect on the force. There will, it is understood, be a corresponding increase for the officers of the force.

Through paying a visit to the Camrose (Alberta) car, which is at the Central station, a Montreal lady, Mrs. James Hoffman, got news of a brother, Mr. Dawson, whom she had not seen or heard from in ten years.

When the car was at Montreal she visited it. When conversing with one of the men in charge she ascertained that her missing brother was located near the growing town of Camrose, Alberta, and was well known to the men on board the train.

CHILDREN INJURED

Ordinary Cathartics and Pills and Harsh Physic Cause Distressing Complaints

You cannot be over-careful in the selection of medicine for children. Only the very gentlest bowel medicine should ever be given, except in emergency cases. Ordinary pills, cathartics and purgatives are apt to do more harm than good. They may cause griping, nausea, and other distressing after-effects that are frequently health destroying.

We personally recommend and guarantee Hexall's Remedies as the safest and most dependable remedy, which we know, for constipation and associate bowel disorders. We have such absolute faith in the virtues of this remedy that we sell it on our guarantee of money back in every instance where it fails to give entire satisfaction, and we urge all in need of such medicine to try it at our risk.

Hexall's Remedies are eaten just like candy, are particularly prompt and agreeable in action, may be taken at any time, day or night; do not cause diarrhoea, nausea, griping, excessive looseness, or other undesirable effects. They have a very mild but positive action upon the organs with which they come in contact, apparently acting as a regulative tonic upon the relaxed muscular coat of the bowel, thus, overcoming weakness, and aiding to restore the bowels to more vigorous and healthy activity.

Hexall's Remedies commonly completely relieve constipation, except of course when of a surgical character. They also tend to overcome the necessity of constantly taking laxatives to keep the bowels in normal condition. Three sizes of packages, 10 cents, 25 cents, and 50 cents. Remember, you can obtain Hexall's Remedies in Wetaskiwin only at our store-The Hexall Store, H. L. Higgs.

First Exhibit of New Spring Millinery
SATURDAY AFTERNOON and EVENING
MARCH 23rd, 1912

We invite the Ladies of Wetaskiwin to view this beautiful display

The shape is everything in Millinery this spring. The shape determines the amount and character of trimming and there is a decided preference for the Derby Kettle, and Tam, O' Shanter Hats.

Novelties are many but the most acceptable models are developed in Milan or Hump Straw. Color is second in importance in determining the correctness in millinery, leaning greatly to vivid tones.

Trimmings formerly so important take a minor place. In fact lack of trimmings where one would most expect it is a frequent characteristic of some of the smartest models. Small flowers such as june roses and tiny rambles, malines and violent colors contrasts are the distinguished feature.

In the Ready-to-Wear Section

The fashion display is of supreme interest to every lady in Wetaskiwin, for it is an authentic review of the latest and choicest creations for the coming season.

for the small pay that is given them. He was glad to see that the prime minister had decided upon a general increase.

W. H. White, of Victoria, Alberta said that he knew Inspector Fitzgerald personally and he wished to say a word in addition to the well deserved tributes which had been paid to his memory by the other speakers. There was a prevalent opinion in the province of Alberta, he said, that Inspector Fitzgerald and his party had been sent out to perform an unnecessary task. The country through which they were making the journey was uninhabitable and it was not for patrol or police duty that they were sent. It was generally believed, he said, that because of his distinguished record Fitzgerald was called upon to perform this almost impossible feat. Mr. White further said that as one who had served in the force himself, he could say that the members of the police were not always given a fair deal. He thought that the deputy head of the department was trying to demonstrate to the country just how cheaply he could administer the policing of the Northwest. In closing Mr. White said that it would be a shame if the member of such a man as Inspector Fitzgerald was allowed to be in want.

Tribute to Fitzgerald

Premier Borden said as far as he was concerned, he was anxious to give a perfectly square deal to the members of the force. He agreed with Sir Wilfrid Laurier that it was necessary to extend the outposts of the force further north. Referring to the request of Mr. McLean that something be done for the mother of Inspector Fitzgerald, he said that the object had his complete sympathy. Whatever opinions might be held as to an error of judgment on Fitzgerald's part, all must agree that he bore his part in the journey to the grave in a way that should inspire every man. He himself felt specially proud because he was born and bred in the same city that was also the birthplace of the brave inspector.

He would take the suggestion offered by Mr. McLean into consideration and would make an announcement with regard to it before the end of the session.

(It will be remembered by many of our readers that Inspector Fitzgerald had charge of the Western coast of the K.W.M.P. a few years ago.)

Suffers Untold Agony After Every Meal.

Nearly everything that enters a weak dyspeptic stomach acts as an irritant; hence the difficulty of effecting a cure.

Burdock Blood Bitters will relieve all the distressing symptoms of dyspepsia and in a short time effect a cure.

Mr. F. C. Gross, Berlin, Ont., writes: "I have been troubled with my stomach for the last seven years and tried all kinds of food for it, but none of them ever cured me, so as soon as I would quit using any of them, the same old trouble would come back. Last fall I was advised to try Burdock Blood Bitters, which I did, and used four bottles, and now feel so strong I can do all my house work nicely and can eat almost anything without it affecting me in any way."

"Our boy is also using it; he always got leaded up in his stomach and all over, like rheumatism, and at the age of ten had to stay home from school. He has quite used two bottles yet and is feeling good, can attend school regularly and eats heartily."

COLUMN

EDITED BY THE W. C. T. U.

PERSONAL LIBERTY

Over against the doctrine of liberty the individual has to be put the doctrine of the liberty of society. As society is now constituted and we are all bound up closely together. We are like men sailing together across a dangerous and uncharted sea in a boat which is none too strong. Now there are some in the boat who do not pull their own weight and do not even pay anyone else to pull their weight—deadheads pure and simple.

We have seen quite a merry war waged in these last few years on deadheads, men who travel on railroad passes, and in dummy directorships, receiving pay for services never rendered. Now, is not society interfered with at the point of liberty by the presence of the deadhead?

At least the boat would be at liberty to go faster if it were not carrying dead weight. And what shall we say when the deadhead persists in robbing the boat? He says, "I am indulging his personal liberty, that he is not moving out of the particular part of the boat which has been assigned to him as his own, but he does not mind any great support for his argument when he is advanced under these circumstances. The picture we have drawn is not unfair to the liquor interests in modern society. Moreover, while we are dealing with this matter of the liberty of society some other reflections are in order. The very fact that society has to deal so carefully with the liquor business is an interference with the liberty of society to put a ring in the scout of the liquor business and control the business, but even so society finds its liberty greatly impaired.

A man leading a brute by the nose is not altogether at liberty. He dare not let the brute go, and as long as he is leading it he is almost as much the slave of the brute as the brute is the slave of the man. Of course in the case of the brute the temper is looking forward to a profit, and is working toward slaughterhouse or a stable. The only real safety for society in dealing with grave social evils is in eliminating them.

"Think how much social energy is wasted in our watching the liquor interests. The saloons always tends easily and rapidly towards law-breaking and law-erasure. Even when the saloon men and the brewers and the distillers seem most disposed to keep the law the watching has to be very careful. The elimination of no other institution would release more energy for worthy social purposes than the elimination of the saloon."

In our day liberty is, to a great extent, limited by the amount of money one has. I am of course at liberty to cross the ocean, but my liberty is worth while only in case I have money to pay the passage. Society is held back from many advances simply through lack of money to pay the passage.

We have all heard of the fearful bills; we have to pay every year for the damage done by the liquor business. The energy of criminal procedure, the problem of poor relief and kindred problems—all these are sadder than they would otherwise be simply because of the liquor business.

We are not at liberty to spend as much as we ought to to the public health. We are not at liberty to furnish our cities with as many parks as they need. We are not at liberty to open public art galleries as we should. We are not at liberty to work out rational schemes of social insurance of various kinds or to formulate an entirely rational system for the care of physical and mental, unfortunate.

And even blot on our liberty in these directions is the presence of social evil like the liquor traffic. Ridding the land of this curse would not give us all the liberty we need in these other directions, but it would be a mighty help.—President Francis J. McConnell, of DePaul University, in the Sunday School Journal, November, 1911.

Will Support the Man Says

W. G. W. Fortune

Resolutions Approved by Convention

The tenor of the whole proceedings of the Alberta Temperance and Moral Reform League convention was not to declare allegiance to any political party, but to be in a position to criticize or commend either party as they saw fit. The thought that permeated the convention was to continue adherence to men who would stand out for principles regardless of party affiliation. There is no political party in our league. Our support politically will be given to the man, not the party.

This statement was made Saturday morning by W.G.W. Fortune, general secretary of the Temperance and Moral Reform League, when asked for his impression of the big two-day provincial convention, which closed Thursday night.

Mr. Fortune also took occasion to correct the report appearing in the Bulletin which gave the impression that certain resolutions, submitted to the convention, had been defeated because of their apparent political bias. No resolutions were defeated, although criticism was offered of some by several delegates.

The resolutions which were voted on and passed by the convention were as follows:

1. That we, the Temperance and Moral Reform League of Alberta, assembled in convention, desire to place on record our unqualified disapproval of the action of the provincial government, at its last session, inasmuch as it acceded to so few demands of the temperance people, in fact, to none of the specific requests. So ungratifying has been the government's attitude that it has called forth favorable comment from the Licensed Victuallers' Association. Reviewing the amendments to the Liquor License Act, the journal of the Licensed Victuallers' Association states that the result is to be looked upon as satisfactory to the trade, and rather congratulates the trade that none of the thirteen amendments suggested by the Alberta Temperance and Moral Reform League was granted.

2. That we note with approval the resolution that it is responsible for the placing of a plank in favor of the prohibition of the liquor traffic in the platform of the Alberta Conservative Association, and are disappointed that the said association did not pledge itself to introduce such legislation on a majority vote of the voters who vote on such elections.

3. Whereas, the recent legislation passed by the Alberta Legislature did not give the petitions from license districts 2 and 3, with respect to a local option vote, a legal status, but only such status that makes possible a vote upon the said petitions during 1912, thereby leaving them open to attack in the courts of the province with reduced responsibilities of successful defence; therefore we would recommend to the consideration of the executive committee the matter of the preparation of new petitions for the submission of the vote of the said license districts during the present year.

4. Recognizing the extreme importance of fostering temperance sentiment and arousing and elevating the public consciousness along the lines of the debasing effects, physical and moral, of the traffic in strong drink, we would urge upon all the temperance forces of the province the imperative need of instituting a thorough educational campaign, to emphasize the need of a suitable hygienic instruction in the public schools, of urging to the full the good offices of the W.C.T.U., the Bank of Hope and the various temperance agencies to distribute suitable literature and to give addresses and in every way to inculcate the principles of temperance among the young.

The report of the committee on platform and policy which was adopted, was as follows:

1. That we reaffirm our adherence to the principles contained in the requests made during the past year to the provincial government by your executive for amendments to the liquor license laws.

2. That the convention declares its belief in the principles of the initiative, referendum and recall as pertaining to our provincial parliament, and that we incorporate said principles as a plank in our platform.

3. That while we reaffirm our position respecting the amendments to the liquor license ordinance, recommended by this convention and laid before our executive, yet we declare our firm conviction that the total prohibition of the liquor traffic is the only complete, adequate remedy of the liquor evil and that the members of this league pledge themselves to prosecute with all possible vigor our policy in this matter.

4. Resolved that we in convention assembled, do hereby petition the Hon. J. D. Mack to have legislation enacted whereby in restricted districts the laws of the province in which such railway construction is under way, shall obtain as to the penalties for the infraction of the liquor license ordinance.

5. Resolved, that in view of the postponed vote on local option in license districts 2 and 3, we petition the Alberta Government to have the postponed vote taken on Tuesday, November 19th, 1912.

6. Resolved, that we as a convention recommend the executive committee that they devise ways and means to finance the affairs of the league other than by the individual personal efforts of the general secretary.—Bulletin.

DOCTORS HAD GIVEN UP ALL HOPE

"Fruit-of-lives" saved my life.
RICHARD A. PIERCE, O. May 9, 1910.
"I took upon my recovery as nothing short of a miracle. I was for eleven years, constantly suffering from Chronic Dyspepsia and Indigestion."
I was treated by several doctors and they simply did me no good. During the latter part of my illness, I was so thin that I weighed only 90 pounds, and I vomited everything I ate.

The doctors gave me up to die as the stomach trouble produced heart weakness and I was frequently unconscious. I received the Last Rites of the Church. At this time, a lady strongly urged me to try "Fruit-of-lives". When I had taken one box, I was much better and after three boxes, I was practically well again, and had gained 20 pounds. I have taken 13 boxes in all and now weigh 150 pounds and am well.
"Fruit-of-lives" is the only medicine in the world made of intensified fruit juices and always cures Indigestion, gas, a box, 6 for $2.50, or trial size, 25c. At all dealers, or Fruit-of-lives Limited, Ottawa.

The Grand Trunk plans for 1912, in connection with their hotels, will be pushed as fast as possible. Work on the Fort Garry Hotel in Winnipeg will be rushed, and it is the intention of the company to complete a whole chain of hotels right across the continent. These magnificent structures will be on models similar to the Chateau Laurier, in Ottawa, and the Fort Garry in Winnipeg. The plans for the hotel which is to be erected in Edmonton have been completed and the contracts will be issued shortly. This hotel will be about 155 rooms, and will cost about $750,000. A similar hotel will be built in Regina and plans are now being prepared. Plans have also been prepared and are being examined for the first of the mountain hotels at Miette Hot Springs. This will be the most beautiful building, and will offer all that is to be desired to tourists and mountain travelers. Work is also being proceeded with on the plans for another large mountain hotel in the vicinity of Mount Robson, the highest mountain in the Canadian Rockies, and which towers above the sea level. This location will be the most beautiful and the most attractive mountain on the continent of America. Plans have also been prepared and inspected for the new mammoth hotel at Prince Rupert, and work on it will be proceeded with shortly.

BRONCHITIS

Was So Choked Up
She Could Hardly Breathe.

Bronchitis is an acute inflammation of the mucous membrane lining the air tubes of the lungs, and should never be neglected, for if it is very often the disease becomes chronic, and then it is only a short step to consumption.
On the 21st Nov. 1910, Mrs. Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup was taken, and thus prevent it becoming chronic.
Mr. John D. MacDonald, College Grant, N.S., writes—"My little girl, seven years old, caught a cold which developed into bronchitis. She was so choked up she could hardly breathe. Reading about your wonderful medicine, Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup, I decided to try a bottle, and with much good results that I got another which completely cured her. I cannot say too much in its praise, and would not be without it in the house."

Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup is put up in an elegant bottle, the bottle has the trade mark; price, 25 cents. Manufactured only by The T. Millburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

WAS TROUBLED WITH HEART DISEASE AND NERVOUSNESS

SEVERAL DOCTORS COULD DO HER
NO GOOD. THREE BOXES OF MILBURN'S HEART AND NERVE PILLS COMPLETELY CURED HER.

Miss Mary Lebeau, Hudson, Sask., writes:—"I was troubled with heart disease and nervousness for over two years, and was so bad at times I had to sit up at night being unable to breathe,
and every little noise would make me shake and shiver. I tried several doctors, but they were unable to do me any good. A neighbor then advised me to try a box of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills. As soon as I began to take them
I began to feel much better, and by the time I had used the third box I was completely cured. I would advise anybody suffering from heart disease and nerve-ness to try these pills. They will save quite a bill in doctor's fees."

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills cure
all heart and nerve troubles, and their restorative influence is of great value
and tissue of the body.

Price 50 cents per box, or 10 boxes for $1.25 at all dealers. A mail order direct on

This is an age of new discoveries
To grow hair today after it has fallen out is a reality.

Salvia, the Great Hair Tonic and Dressing, will positively create a new growth of hair.

If you want to have a beautiful
head of hair, free from dandruff, use Salvia once a day and watch the results.

Salvia is guaranteed to stop falling hair and restore the hair to its natural color. The greatest hair vigor known.

Salvia is compounded by expert chemists. Watch your hair if it is falling out.
If you don't you will sooner or later
be bald.

Salvia prevents baldness by fastening the hair to the roots.

Ladies will find Salvia just the hair dressing they are invited to use. It makes the hair shiny, soft and not greasy. A

Sunday School Lesson
By EVANGELINE

FASTING AND FEASTING
Sunday, March 21st, March 2:13-22

How very different was our Lord
from the theologians of His day.
They were unsympathetic, exclusive,
reserved and refused to mingle with the masses. He, on the other hand, the loftiest of souls, or to summarize over abstract theological problems in their dens, rather than visit the busy haunts of men.

Jesus was a man among men, not an unsympathetic theologian shut out from the world. The poor, as well as the poorer rich, He visited in their homes. He mingled with them on the sea shore. He mingled with the multitudes or masses in the streets or in the synagogues. He accepted their invitations to weddings and dinners. He mingled with the masses on one occasion, and with five thousand on another, on the turf covered fields over Jordan. Never once did he seem to wrap Himself up in His own superiority, nor to stand up on a lofty height beckoning men to ascend to Him, but ever mingling in social intercourse with men and women whom he attracted to Himself by the magnetic force of His great love.

We read of him in the opening verses of the lesson as follows: "He went forth again by the sea side, and all the multitudes resorted unto Him, and He taught them. And as he passed by, He saw Levi sitting at the receipt of custom and he said unto him, Follow Me."

Levi was
UP TO HIS EYES IN BUSINESS.

From early morning till late at night his office was thronged with merchants enroute to Jerusalem, Mediteranean ports, and Egypt, or to Damasus, whose goods he held in bond until the duty was paid; with fishermen who came to pay their licenses, and with farmers who came to pay the extortionate taxes on farm produce.

Though he held a lucrative government position, his private income was doubtless augmented largely by fraud and extortion, in false charges of smuggling to obtain hush money, and in seizing property in litigation to taxes.

If over a man was a slave to business Levi, the son of Alphaeus, was that man. He was a man who achieved results. If there was a franchise to buy up, he bought it. If there was a competitor to be crushed
he crushed him. If there was a chance to make a big deal he made it. It was his motto. He was a man of methods, or law, or ethics, or As-tice, or religion.

Though His gains had been great financially, his losses had been great socially and morally.

When, as a young man, he had singled his intention of accepting the appointment, he probably lost a father and a mother who, as God-fearing Israelites, would have expostulated with him and entreated him not to bring so dark a blot on their proud genealogy, for, to wear the Roman livery, to become the hireling of the Roman government, was to commit the greatest apostasy possible to a Jew—it was to become "the tool of the oppressor."

When the love of money became the dominant principle of his life, he lost both kin and kin, to them he would cease to live, his very name would be blotted from the family records, he lost his reputation, he lost the favor of God, for which he substituted the favor of the almighty shekel.

Jesus knew all about it. He could read the man's unguished heart, as well as his past life, like a book. He knew also how admirably he had been trained to judge men, to avoid imputation, and to record transactions accurately. His new wrapped up in him the material for a new creation to whom he could entrust the writing of His own biography for the Hebrew nation.

"Follow Me," said Jesus.
"His not to make reply."
His not to reason why.
His but to do and die about
into the valley of death."
To all the past, he said,
West Matthew Levi.

He laid up his office, sent in his resignation to the Roman Consul, and created the sensation of the hour, by joining the ranks of humble Nazarene and in devoting his life henceforth for ever in loving self-sacrificing service for others.

"Had any one asked Levi what prompted such a sudden reversal, and led to such a sudden transformation, he would probably have said: "The reality of religion which brings life,
and health and love to the suffering
sons of men."

What was the first thing this wealthy converted Jew did when he opened his heart to Christ?
He opened his home, he opened his purses, and he opened his hands.

"Like says he made a great feast!"
a grand public dinner in honor of his Lord.

Many, he knew, would be curious to meet Jesus. Others would come
to meet Jesus. Others would come

Mr. and Mrs. S. Swoboda of Strathcona, were in the city this week renewing old acquaintances. Mr. Swoboda is an ex-mayor of the city, and since his removal. They returned home Thursday afternoon.

Lethbridge, Alta.—The Canadians who for three years past have been capturing nearly all of the silver cups and valuable prizes at the Dry-Farming Congresses at Billings, Spokane and Colorado Springs, have got to look to their laurels this fall, for the Spokane Chamber of Commerce is going to endeavor to recapture all that silverware and some more besides, according to the entries and space reservations made for that organization at the International Dry-Farmed Products Exposition, to be held at Lethbridge October 21-26.

Daniel Morgan, financier and banker of Spokane, is the organizer of this movement to give the Canadians "a big run for their money," and he is one of the most energetic men on the Board of Trustees of the Spokane Chamber of Commerce. As chairman of the agricultural, horticultural and dairying committee of that organization, Mr. Morgan is making things hum, according to all reports. He has stirred up the growers of world prize winning grain in Alberta and Saskatchewan by his announcement, and they are this early preparing to grow still better grains than heretofore, and some are now devoting their evenings sorting seed with microscopes by oil lamps.
